

Dileep Mavalankar

Director Indian Institute of Public Health Gandhinagar (IIPHG). His work experiences include faculty and research positions and being adviser to key academic and government organizations and NGOs. Actively involved in for example research focused on improving management of rural hospitals, strengthening reproductive health programme management, improving quality of care in family welfare. Appointed by the Prime Minister to the Steering Group of the National Rural Health Mission constituted by the Government of India in 2005, and a member of the Steering Group on Health for the 12th Five-year Plan of the Planning Commission of India.

For further detail see: <https://iiphg.edu.in/dileep-mavalankar/>

Email: director@iiphg.org